Dear Parents,

Revision of online talk on Early identification and intervention of adolescents' emotional needs

As the social environment is changing rapidly nowadays, our secondary school students are facing a lot of challenges. Some of them have relatively high stress level. As a consequent, the mental health of youth is worthy for our attention. In order to support parents, Caritas School Social Work Online Parent Education YouTube Channel has been set up. Parents are invited to have revision of an online talk - Early identification and intervention of adolescents' emotional needs, in which, the knowledge and basic skills in dealing with the youth having emotional distress was shared.

Please scan the QR codes or entre the links below to watch the mentioned talk and more online parent talks and video clips that you may be interested as well.

Yours sincerely,

Rowena Lai (Mrs.)
Senior Social Work Supervisor
